Alan D. Lash.

Lash & Goldberg LLP, a boutique law firm specializing in complex civil and commercial litigation, has announced that partner Alan D. Lash has been appointed to the American Arbitration Association (AAA) Healthcare Dispute Resolution Advisory Council, a 13-member national group selected by the AAA to develop dispute resolution solutions for the healthcare industry. The council is composed of industry leaders and counsel from within the healthcare industry, including the American Medical Association, the American Hospital Association, national insurers and universities.

Last year, Lash was appointed to the AAA's Commercial Arbitration Panel. He is the only accredited AAA arbitrator in Florida who is also certified by the Florida Bar as a specialist in health law and recognized by Best Lawyers in America for both commercial litigation and health law.

The AAA is the world's leading provider of conflict management and dispute resolution services for individuals and organizations who wish to resolve conflicts out of court.

As a founding partner of Lash & Goldberg, Lash brings nearly 25 years of complex business litigation experience to the firm, where he serves regional and national clients in a variety of industries including healthcare, retail, banking, real estate and telecommunications. Lash has prosecuted and defended a number of high-profile cases and has obtained several multi-million dollar arbitration awards, judgments and settlements in high-stakes business disputes throughout the United States. His practice as an arbitrator for the AAA and the American Health Lawyers Association's Alternative Dispute Resolution Service focuses on the alternative resolution of commercial disputes, including those in the healthcare industry.

Lash & Goldberg is a boutique law firm with offices in Miami-Dade and Broward counties. Founded in 1996, the firm specializes in complex civil and commercial litigation and trial and appellate representation in all State and Federal courts, as well as in arbitration and administrative proceedings. Lash & Goldberg has become a firm of choice for sophisticated corporate clients, as well as for prominent lawyers seeking specialized litigation counsel.
