Overview

Daryl Saylor is a senior associate in Lash & Goldberg LLP's Miami office. Prior to joining the Firm, Daryl practiced at two global law firms, DLA Piper LLP and Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson LLP.

Daryl handles complex business disputes and white collar matters for a wide array of clients — including public corporations, private companies, investment funds and banks, as well as officers, and directors — in a diverse range of industries, including healthcare, oil and gas, financial, insurance and others. He litigates complex business actions, including matters relating to breaches of contract, fraud, deceptive trade practices, real estate, employment, buy-outs and acquisitions, corporate governance, securities, class actions, products liability, procurement, insurance coverage, and data breaches.

Daryl also conducts internal investigations — both on a domestic and global scale — relating to fraud, bribery, securities, competition, conflicts of interest and data breaches. He further defends clients in government enforcement proceedings brought by the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ), the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the U.S. Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA), and other foreign enforcement bodies like the U.K. Serious Fraud Office (SFO). In conjunction with such representations, Daryl performs compliance remediation, designing, enhancing and implementing compliance programs for his clients to strengthen their internal controls.
